

The opening of The Lincoln Heights Health Center. October 8th, 1967.

Launched the first funded Women. Infants, and Children (WIC) program in Hamilton County.

Partnered with the University of Cincinnati Medical Center to expand services in northern Hamilton County while educating health professionals in community health.

Opened the Forest Park Health Center. the second neighborhood expansion site.

The new Lincoln Heights Health Center opened on June 28, 2004. A state-of-theart facility, housing medical, dental, and support services.

Partnered with three behavioral health agencies, leading to the opening of four co-located behavioral health site opened health sites.

More than 18,000 patients served and a fifth behavioral in Amelia.

Opened a new and expanded Mt. Healthy Family Practice.

Opened a brand new School-Based Health Center in Winton Woods South Campus

Launched Free At Home Delivery services for the Lincoln Heights Pharmacy.

The Lincoln Heights Health Center moved to a new location, doubling its size and comprehensive primary care services.

Mt. Healthy Family Practice Center, the first neighborhood expansion site, opened and began the Center's pursuit to bring health care to communities outside of Lincoln Heights.

Honored as one of five health centers nationally as "Models That Work" by the United States Department of Health and Human Services.

Purchased land from the Village of Lincoln Heights, and began construction of a new 42,000 sq. ft. health center.

Changed name to The HealthCare Connection, to better reflect the mission of serving patients from surrounding communities.

Opened the Viking School-Based Health Center, in partnership with the Princeton City School District.

Celebrated its 50th anniversary on October 8th, 2017.

Opened a brand new School-Based Wellness Center in Mt. Healthy Junior/ High School

Opened a brand new Pharmacy within the Lincoln Heights Clinic.